Canada Day '97 a great salute to years of settlement

Canada Day '97 was a happy and festive salute to Elk Point's 90 years of history as a community, from the first pancake off the Chamber of Commerce griddle in the morning, to the last song in the afternoon stage show.

Well over 800 people enjoyed the pancake breakfast, with descendants of those pioneers who came to Elk Point between 1907 and 1927 making a detour to sign the special guest book and pick up a commemorative ribbon.

The parade was organized by the Elk Point and District Lions Club. Winners were as follows:

Industrial — 1. Pan Canadian Petroleum, 2. Elan Energy, 3. Norcen Energy Resources.

Commercial — 1. Shamrock Valley Enterprises, 2. St. Paul and District Co-op, 3. tie between Tri-Tech Oilfield Services and Elk Point Liquor Store.

Youth Clubs and Organizations — 1. Rainbows and Families, 2. Elk Point 4-H Multi Club, 3. St. Paul Sea Cadets.

Adult Clubs and Organizations — 1. Elks and OORP, 2. Heinsburg Community Club, 3. Pioneer Circle.

Horses and Riders — 1. Elk Point Historical Society, 2. U.F.A., 3. John Drobot.

Antique Vehicles — 1. Bob Lee, 2. Henry Botting, 3. Larry Babcock.

Freestyle Individual — 1. Emily MacDonald, 2. Alberta Parks "Seemore", 3. tie between Elmer Van Riper and Danny Anderson.

The A. G. Ross Arena was a busy place, with the Arena Operating Committee serving a beef-on-a-bun lunch and the Canada Day craft sale underway. Elk Point Christian Community Church served pie, coffee and lemonade from an outside stand near the new Canada Day stage.

The new stage was a fitting setting on a beautiful afternoon for the two hour stage show which started with O Canada sung by Grace Meger as the Boy Scouts raised the Canadian and Alberta flags. An American flag, donated by Peter Andrishak, reflected the American background of many of our earliest settlers.

Mayor Ed Buck welcomed everyone to this "historic time for this area," and led a round of applause for the hardworking Canada Day Committee. He commented on the excellent parade, and said that Canada "is one of the greatest countries in the world. Let's keep it that way."

Ole Erickson and Friends, who included Babe Sharkey, Henry Botting, Grace Meger and Eddie Poitras, kicked off the entertainment with "This Land Is Your Land," "Blue Canadian Rockies," "Under the Double Eagle" and "Buffalo Gals."

Walter Pooler was on hand with his entertaining puppet presentation. Homer Poitras provided the fiddle tunes for a group of Red River Jig dancers, and also played for Peggy Fidler-Zaraska and Florence Demchuk's round polka.

Another special guest was Popcorn the Clown, who kept the audience laughing with his antics. He had entertained earlier in the arena with balloon animals for the children.

Ole Erickson and Friends were joined by Jeff Ryder and Andrew Pearson and later were joined by the Heinsburg group, Walter Anderson, and Eddie Poitras on violin, Morris Popeil with his jew's harp, and Roy Scott with mule bones, spoons and jigger, to wind up the afternoon with some good country music.

PROUD YOUNG CANADIANS -- with maple leaf flags waving merrily, led the Canada Day parade with this huge contingent of bicycles and other kiddie conveyances.

Concert features pioneer descendants

Elk Point's Canada Day salute to 90 years of settlement began Sunday evening with the annual Gospel Concert, which featured entertainers from a number of local and area churches.

Following a prayer of invocation by Canad Day chairperson Deanna Easthope, singers from the United and Roman Catholic church choirs combined to start off the program. The group was then joined by several more singers to form a group with representatives of five pioneer families: the Babcocks, Cinnamon, Loftus, Hollidays, and Bartholomews, for two more numbers.

Local teen Michelle Friesen displayed her powerful voice in two a capella numbers.

Heinsburg area residents Grace Meger and Vernon "Babe" Sharkey were next on the program, with such favorites as "The Old Rugged Cross." John Bennett on piano accompanied singer Harvey Nadeau.

The Country Gospel Band is led by Beauvallon Seventh Day Adventist pastor Brian Bechthold, along with Bob Palinka and Dean Rottacker. The talented trio offered "That Gospel Road," "He Turned the Water Into Wine," "Family Bible" and "Cabin In Glory

Land," than asked the crowd to sing along with "How Great Thou Art" and "I Saw the Light."

The band was then joined by

Babe Sharkey and Grace Meger for several more crowd-pleasing numbers, as a great finale to another successful annual concert.

Council back at full strength

Elk Point Town Council is finally back at full strength, after Walter Lesyk answered the July 2 call for nominees for a by-election to fill the vacant Council chair. Town Manager Myron Goyan said that as only one nomination came in, Lesyk was appointed by acclamation and will be sworn in at the July 12 meeting.

Lesyk served on Town Council from 1984 to 1986 and was edged out by Mae Hendrickson in a very close race during the 1992 Council election.

Canada Day Gospel Concert

OLD TIME COUNTRY GOSPEL music was provided by Heinsburg residents Vernon "Babe" Sharkey on fiddle and Grace Meger on accordion, backed up by a country gospel band from Beauvallon, Bob Palinka, Dean Rottacker and Pastor Brian Bechthold, who were also featured on their own later in the very enjoyable concert.

POWERFUL VOCAL SOLOS came from Michelle Friesen, who sang "All That We Have" and "Love the Lord."

Check stop nabs motorists

On July 4, 1997 the Elk Point RCMP and the St. Paul Highway Patrol, in conjunction with Alberta Motor Transport, conducted a Check Stop at Frog Lake, Highway 897.

A total of 20 tickets were issued to drivers for various infractions, such as failing to stop at a marked sign. It is a reminder to all drivers to take precautions when operating their vehicles and to obey all traffic rules.

Wrong Irene

In our June 24 coverage of the Interagency Health Committee meeting, Irene Millar was inadvertently referred to as Irene Melin, who was not at the meeting. Our sincere apologies to both Irene.

Bensmiller second after three Stampede runs

Dewberry wagon driver Buddy Bensmiller is sitting second in the standings at the Calgary Stampede Rangeland Derby after three nights of racing.

Bensmiller placed second on Friday night with a 1:17.62 run, and won Saturday's top day money with a time of 1:17.33, but slowed to a 1:18.41 on Sunday, to sit second in the cumulative times, 63/100 of a second behind Sunday's winner, Dallas Dorchester. The balance of the top ten is as follows: 3. Norm Cuthbertson, 4. Herman Flad, 5. Bert Croteau, 6. Ward Willard, 7. Kelly Sutherland, 8. Mike Vigen, 9.

Jerry Bremner, and 10. Jim Knight.

Mitsuing wins Meadow Lake wagons

Loon Lake chuckwagon driver Ray Mitsuing capped off first place runs on Monday and Tuesday, June 30 and July 1, by winning Meadow Lake Stampede's final Ranchers' Pride Dash for Cash. Thirty ranchers had contributed to the huge $3000 pot which added to the excitement of the four day race meet. Mitsuing sat second overall after the four days of racing, behind Brian Laboucane, who finished third in the Dash for Cash.

From the FCSS desk...

A big thank you to everyone who helped make Canada Day great!

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

Our Canada Day celebrations are over and I really feel very appreciative for everything that was done to make it a special time in our community. It was a good opportunity for us to acknowledge the beautiful country we live in with its many resources and freedoms that we enjoy. Canada — our home is really a special place.

In Elk Point we were remembering not only our country but the 90 years of settlement for this area. This was tremendous! Oh, the people who have made a difference to our community because they have lived here! It was nice to see and meet the pioneer descendants. Some came from many miles away just so they could help us celebrate. Others still live in the area — and they came too. That was wonderful! Thank you for taking part in our Canada Day celebrations. Thank you for wearing your special ribbons.

I would also like to thank the merchants. All the decorations on the windows! You did a great job. It was fun looking at the windows. Thank you so much.

Our celebrations started with the Sunday Night Gospel Concert. All local talent from all the churches in Elk Point and surrounding area. It was tremendous — natural — spiritual and an excellent way to begin our Canada Day celebrations. Thank you, everyone who performed and everyone who attended.

July 1st, Tuesday, began with the Pancake Breakfast. Boy, oh boy was that breakfast ever good! Thank you, Chamber of Commerce and all the volunteers.

At noon we were able to see a wonderful parade. Thank you, everyone for entering our parade.

In the afternoon — say, did you see our outdoor stage? Thank you Town Council for seeing that an outdoor stage was built. We all kept our fingers crossed that there would be no rain.

To all the performers — oh, so many — it just wouldn't be the same if you weren't there. A BIG THANK YOU to all of you!

It was also nice to have the arena open with all the things going on in there. Thank you, volunteers, performers and craft contributors. And what would a birthday party be without a cake? Thanks to the OORP for their big, beautiful birthday cake that was enjoyed by so many.

To the Town crew who moved the bleachers into place, set up parade barriers and delivered tables, garbage barrels and planks for the pancake breakfast, thank you. To the F. G. Miller French Class for doing the cleanup, thank you.

To all our Canada Day sponsors — thank you everyone.

A GIFT OF LOVE from the Elk Point United Church community went with Jill Hartley when she left Elk Point for Ontario. The gift presented by Larry Babcock was the beautiful hand-made quilt below, which has squares containing pictures of most of the families belonging to the church, pictures of the Sunday School group, the choir, Heritage Lodge and Parkview residents, a picture of the church itself and one of Norm and Jill busy at a church function. The quilt was designed by Verona Lea Flanders and Sharon Kuhn, photos gathered and ground-work done by Millie Orr and the one-of-a-kind keepsake created by many talented fingers from the congregation.

Church bids farewell to members

Elk Point United Church said a reluctant farewell to some of its members at a special service on June 15.

Jill Hartley, widow of former minister Rev. Norman Hartley, is returning to Ontario, while Curt and Carrie Svendsen and family are moving to Barrhead.

Farewell gifts were presented at a luncheon following the service.

Both Mrs. Hartley and the Svendsens will be very much missed by the congregation.

CURT AND CARRIE SVENDSEN were presented with a framed plate depicting the Elk Point United Church. Their daughter Sharman and her son Kyle also received a farewell gift. The Svendsens are retiring to Barrhead.

Holiday safety

Summertime fun and safe driving

EDMONTON - With school out for the summer and people heading out for their annual summer holidays, motorists should take extra care as they travel the highways and roads in Alberta. "Don't drink and drive, it's not worth it!" is just one of the messages that Albertans and visitors to the province will be hearing this summer in a new series of public service announcements and advertisements.

"Everyone looks forward to what summer in Alberta has to offer and that includes enjoying our many festivals, rodeos and even backyard barbecues," said Minister of Alberta Transportation and Utilities Walter Paszkowski. "We want everyone to make smart choices when it comes to drinking and driving."

In Alberta, July and August are the months with the highest number of alcohol-related collisions. Through enhanced awareness and education, drivers will be encouraged to make responsible choices and do their part to reduce the number of preventable collisions occurring every day.

Alberta Transportation and Utilities and the Traffic Safety Initiative, together with its stakeholders, are encouraging event organizers to help make our roadways safe this summer. "We are asking event organizers to support messages about the consequences of impaired driving and promote positive alternatives such as designated drivers, taxis or public transportation," Paszkowski added. "By working together we can keep Albertans and our visitors safe on the road year-round."

The three-year Alberta Traffic Safety Initiative was launched in 1996. Its partners include approximately 30 traffic safety groups — including municipal police services and the RCMP, the Alberta Motor Association, the Alberta School Bus Contractors Association, the Alberta Student Transportation Advisory Council, People Against Impaired Driving (PAID), the trucking and insurance industries and health, education and other special interest partners who are working in a cooperative effort to deliver results-oriented programs that address traffic safety province-wide.

TIC talk

By Sherry Pelech
Tourist Information Clerk

As most people in the area know, Elk Point was probably named for the town of Elk Point, South Dakota, despite the fact that we are known for our large herds of wild elk, freely roaming the hillsides and river valleys. (Well, OK, large herds of semi-wild elk, nicely penned behind strong fences - or large herds of semi-wild, two legged elk wearing purple hats - we don't remember the names but the fez is familiar.)

Legend has it that an intemperate bartender who hailed from the town of Elk Point, South Dakota, left his job in Vegreville, and in an attempt to dry out, floated down the Saskatchewan River on a raft. Finding an area of great beauty and serenity, he dug a hole in the river bank and made the little cave his home, while he contemplated the extravagances of his life. (Thus did he found Alberta's first Alcohol Treatment Centre.) No, but seriously, so well did he like the country that, upon returning to Vegreville, he made a point of telling any settlers who were looking for a home-stead, about the wonderful place he called Elk Point.

Legend aside, the boring truth is probably that Elk Point's first postmaster, Charles Hood, named it after his home town.

How Elk Point, South Dakota, got its name is another interesting legend, fraught with historical reference.

Meriweather Lewis and William Clark were sent by President Thomas Jefferson to explore the newly purchased Louisiana Territory. As the Lewis and Clark Expedition made its way up the Missouri River the came to a place, on August 22, 1804, where Captain Clark records much elk 'sign' - that is, droppings, manure, fretzels, doo-doo - whatever. This place they called Elk Point.

Isn't it interesting to think that our lovely town could just as well be named Elk Poo as Elk Point?

Minor Ball newsWhite Sox start Provincials

By Doug Bassett
Elk Point Minor Ball

The White Sox started their provincial drive this past weekend, travelling to Fort Saskatchewan on Saturday to meet the host Red Sox and the Cubs from Consort, playing four games in the first of three rounds to qualify for the final in early August.

Playing their first game against Consort, the Sox had a tie going into the 7th inning and choked, losing by one run. One week earlier in Consort in the league final, the Sox lost in another one run game against the Cubs. The Sox finished the regular season in second place for the North East League final tournament.

In the second game on Saturday the Sox came up short once again after having a two run lead going into the 7th against the Fort. This would be the sixth time this season that the Sox have lost in the final inning. On the positive note, the boys' bats are working well, it just seems like they need a closing pitcher! Sunday morning the Sox had a rough game fielding the ball, losing this one 10-4 to the Cubs.

Sunday afternoon the boys finally shook the monkey off their back, with Tyson Ballas on the mound. A very close game into the 6th inning when the Sox only had a two run lead. The bases loaded up and no one out, Tyson wanting to save the manager a trip to the mound, pitched out of the jam and chucked some great junk to sit down three in a row. Helping with the cause in the next inning, Jordan (Buhner) Bassett pounded a 350 ft. home run, bringing in two runs. The White Sox would not choke this time, defeating the Red Sox and heading home happy boys ready to prepare for next week when they travel to Strome for the second round of Provincials. The third round, Elk Point will be hosting at home.

In other Provincial play, the Bantam girls, after going undefeated all year, lost two out of three games in Thorhild and are now finished for the season.

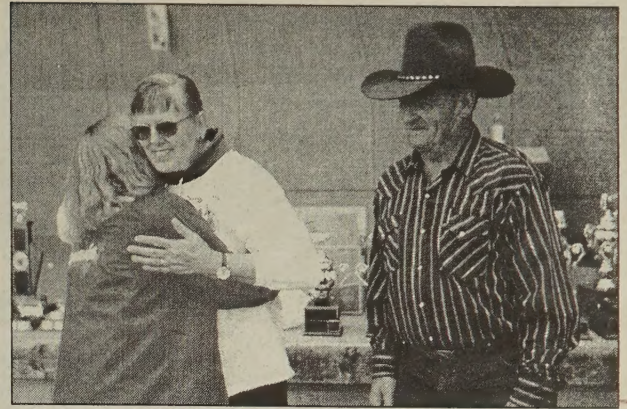

4-H winds up year with annual picnic

Elk Point 4-H Multi Club wound up their 1996-97 season with a family picnic at Stoney Lake Recreation Area on Sunday, June 29.

After a fine meal spearheaded by supper committee members Marci Bintz, Gail Havener and Elaine Babenek, and activities planned by Erin Bintz, Taralee Babenek, Leanne Ference and Jaylynn Wirsta, a series of awards were presented. The Spirit of 4-H award, in memory of Bruce Smith, went to the club's secretary and parliamentarian, Marci Bintz, who made meetings run more smoothly and with less chaos, and who also helped and encouraged junior members and represented Elk Point at Club Week.

The North East Alberta Beef Breeders award went to Jaylynn Wirsta, who earned a first in Junior Showmanship this year and tackled a difficult topic in public speaking.

Breed association awards were also handed out to the members who showed these types of animals as this year's projects.

SPIRIT OF 4-H AWARD -- Was presented to in memory of former 4-H member Bruce Smith to Marci Bintz, who was chosen by the 4-H leaders as the senior member who best exemplified the spirit of 4-H. It was presented by Allen and Lucille Smith, who added a hug for this worthy 4-H member.

NEABBA AWARD -- was presented by Ken Ference to junior member Jaylynn Wirsta, who put a great effort into 'learning to do by doing' this year in her club activities.

READiscover with us! Summer program gets underway

By Karina Mitchell
READiscover Coordinator

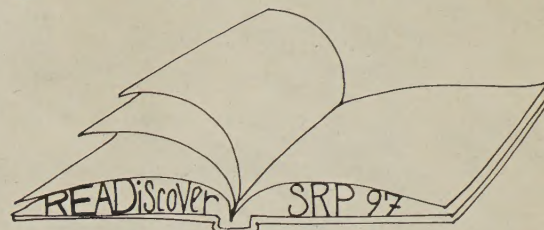

Two months of organization comes down to a few last minute preparations and waiting... waiting for enthusiastic children to pour into the Library, ready to read, learn and have some fun! The Library's Summer Reading Program has begun.

This year's theme is READiscover Science, which leaves the door wide open for exploration and investigation. And who better to do that with than 3 to 6 year olds on Tuesdays and 7 year olds and up on Thursdays. Twice a week, from 1:30 to 3:30, we will be probing different topics. Imagine the world of Balloons and Bubbles, or the adventures to be had with Wheels and Wings. And that's just the start! Weather or Not, Northern Lights, Beasts and Bugs, Stoves and Stomachs, Cops and Robbers and Sounds Like Fun are the topics to be experienced through books, games, experiments, crafts, snacks (thanks, Michele!) and special events. And what is a reading program without someone (preferably the kids) getting wet?

But now I wait. Maybe I should be going through a few science books? What if they ask me about the ecological consequences of the difference between a dodecylbenzene sulfonate ion and an alkylbenzene sulfonate ion? Maybe we will have to READiscover together! Care to join us?

What's news at the library?

A great time to get reacquainted with Elk Point Public Library

By Michele Ducek
Librarian

Now that summer has arrived (knock wood), it is the perfect time to renew your acquaintance with the Elk Point Public Library. If you're still undecided about where to take your vacation, we have all sorts of books about all sorts of places, including a number focusing on Alberta. If you have kids who have begun to whine that most dreaded of all summer phrases ("I'm bored!"), we have books, magazines and videos to keep them occupied. We also have our summer reading program Tuesdays and Thursdays and our Friday afternoon matinees. Finally, if you're out and about and you find the sunshine getting to be too much for you, come on in, we're air conditioned.

All you people out there hoping to get in a little reading this summer might want to try out these latest best sellers:

Thirty years after a tragic car accident tor them apart, three friends reunite at the lake of their childhood in Summer at the Lake by Andrew Greeley.

Jane Whitefield does one last job before she retires and gets married but when her last client becomes the target of a couple of hitmen, she must risk her life again to save his in Shadow Woman by Thomas Perry.

When the daughter he didn't know he had is kidnapped, the President of the United States calls on former IRA enforcer Sean Dillon to get her back in The President's Daughter by Jack Higgins.

A brutal crime shatters a prominent New England family in Secrecy by Belva Plain.

A wounded New York cop convalesces on Long Island and gets caught up in murder in Plum Island by Nelson DeMille.

An embittered policeman kidnaps a woman trapped in a loveless marriage in Fat Tuesday by Sandra Brown.

In The Lady of Avalon, Marion Zimmer Bradley tells of the creation of this legendary isle and foreshadows the birth of King Arthur.

And a few titles in our juvenile series:

A young Indian boy sets out to find his mare who has been stolen by a wild stallion in Young Wolf and Spirit Horse, a Step Into Reading Book by Janice Shefelman and Tom Shefelman.

Nancy meets Frank and Joe at the Indy 500 and together they investigate a million-dollar mystery in Out of Control, a Nancy Drew and Hardy Boys Super Mystery.

Jessica and Elizabeth get summer jobs as au pairs for a royal family at a beautiful European chateau in Once Upon a Time from Sweet Valley High.
